$100 was voted for White street widening and land damage.

A motion of E. S. Beals to take up Art, 0 again was voted, and his motion that $51720 unexpended balance for highways for reappropriated for same purpose, was carried. This and other reappropriations seem nunch like "robating Peter to pay Paul," as they have been included in the town assets and their expenditure increases the town debt accordingly.

$4000 was voted for Remittance of Tayes and $2800 for laterest and this count.

The facta in regard to this wonderful discovery are fucusished by E. L. Baker, consulgenced to the Argootine Republic. The joints in his report were obtained from a report made by a commission appointed by the Argootine Requisite. Among other things that report says, "According to the opinion of the mining engineer who has commissed the case, the arriferous layer extends along the coast all the way from Cape Virgin to the north of the flactoness del Condor, a distance of 40 miles, and it is possible that it may very coset all the way from Cape Virgin to the north of the therenees del Confor, a distance of 40 miles, and it is pressible that it may extend to the tallegos. The engineer thinks that these gold depeats are of a superior class, and that there is an abmediate of both gold and platinum.

There has never been any considerable gold mining in this part of South America, and that there is an abmediate of both gold and platinum.

There has never been any considerable gold mining in this part of South America, and the natives have but the crudest notions of flow to proseced in the work of taking out the gold. constituencies, are indiginant at the threatening manner in which the tishery question is referred to in the governor-general's message. It is regarded as an alternation of the part of the Tominion government to force the United States government, by way of threats and publishing, toto a new treaty. This style of milimidation it is believed will have the effect of strengthening the hostlity which thus alroady shown itself for tongress against the opening of negatiators on the subject. The intimation that burliament will be called upon to vote a large sum of money which, according to the government's estimate, would be $20,000 for the maintennance of a protective service, in the event of negoconstituencies, are infigurat at the threaten-by Sir John Maedonald that steps would be taken thring the recess toward scenning a more extended treaty. It is known that some correspondence has passed tet were the firthish and United States and frominion governments, which, however, the minister of justice refuses to make public at present. The ministen of any reference to the subject in the governor's message leads to the belief that the negotiations have led to no satisfactory result. Sir Juhu Mertonabl's Course on the In the Canadian Borse of Commins at Ottaws, Out., recently, in reply to infinal versions by the leader of the upposition, Su John Macdonald, promer, said be had not approached the Patted States Government for a reason of the Usbary treaty at the time of its exputation, as such a report would under those current states, have been an act

Cas Caseumpilan be Caved?

We have so often seen fatal results follow the decturation that it can be cared, that wa have an eposecusarly settled down in the belief that this disease must necessarily prova fatal. It is true that occasionally a community has witnessed an isolated case of what may appropriately be termed spontaneous recovery, but to what combination of favorable circumstances this result was due none have hitherto been found able to determine.

We have now the gratifying tact teamenace that the process by which nature effects this wonderful changa is no longer a mystary to the medical profession, and that the changes hrought about in the system under favorable circumstances by intrinsic canses may be made as certainty and more expeditiously by the use of the proper remedy. In other words, nature is influsted and assisted.

Taberculous matter is nothing more or less than nourisbment imperfectly organized. Now, it we can procure the arganization of this fixed materint so that through the process of elective affinity it may take its place in the system, we can correct had decases. This is just what Placi's Cure for Consumption does. It arrasis at ance the progress of the disease hyproventing the further supply of tuberculous matter, for while the avstem is national and inside. It this controls cough, expectoration, night-sweats, heetle fever, and all intic characteristic symptoms of Consumption.

Many physicians are now using this medical, in and all write the fit connected by care, and all intic characteristic symptoms of Consumption on of the diseases they can readily cure.

The forming stage of a disease is always the most augicion far freatment. This fact should induce persums to resurt to the use of Psech Cure when the cough information is cought symptoms of the medicale have been found sufficient or on not for this remedy cure and kinds of coughs with the remote. the trouble. So in all diseases of the throni and Inase, with symptoms simulating those of Consumption, Plac's Cure is the only infal-litide remedy.

The billowing letter recommanding Places Cure for Consumption, is a fair sample of the certificative received daily by the proprietor of this medicine:

There are three terms very often quoted as American "slang" which possess vertain peculinrities of locality. These are "gress," "calculate" and "reckon." One may travel through what are known as the Southern States for five years and never once hear either of the first two words, nuless speken by a northerner or a man from the West. The Southerner "reckons" everything, except, perhaps, consequences, and they are left to take care of themselves. "Guess" is more ar less universal in the states, and "calenlate" is common only to the North and 000 men were camped there, awaiting or extreme East. "Stranger" is frequently ders. It will henceforth have a new and erroneously used by English writers and impressive prominence in the history of speakers as an ordinary colloquialism of the of the greatest of modern heroes. all Americans. It is the property of the South and Southwest only, and even there is rapidly becoming obsolete. Hut to these expressions it is hardly fair to append the stigma of "slang," New, there are identy of slang words and phrases in vogue in America which probably are meaningless to English minds. Governor's Island.

A New York letter to the Troy Times flms describes Governor's island, where General Honeock died: Governor's the abundance of nuts grown there. I ment soon after the opening of the pres is seperated from this city by the East river, which here is a haif mile wide. A and the island is only reached by a gov erument ferry, which crosses the East river at the Battery. Governor's Island ls considered the most desirable military station (for a residence) in the country, being very healthy, and then so coaven ient to this city that all the pleasures of the latter are within easy reach. On the extreme west stands a showy structure of stone called Castie William, whose em brasures and cannon have a defiant look, lust really they are of no defensive power against a foreign fleet. In the centre of the island, however, is a star fort of the most perfect character, and near by are the officers' dwellings, one of which now contains the honored corpse. Governor's Island first enme late active use during the Mexican war, when it was a place of encampment for our volunteers. During the civil war, however, the number was increased to a vast extent, and often 20,-

Whenever you have been in the city have your synquthies never been worked upon by a small boy plending for you to buy his last paper? If you have not, it is because you never were down town in the evening or that you never attend the theatre. When the places of anusement close, these little swindlers reap a rich harvest, and the public have no idea of how many cents, alcels and diness mer gathered in this way. Within a few days I have noticed a munder of instances where these porly chal children have been fraced to their bones by the agents of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children with practically the same result. The purents were found to be in fairly confortable circumstances, and while shang nathing themselves were living on the earnings!! of their cuildren. The others of the society say that under the present law they are not able to prevent this state of things, as the parents keep themselves just within the limit of the law. What a life is being mapped on or these children, especially the girts, as the dea of any moral training never seems to enter into the calculation. The only remely suggested by the stop toying or otherwise patronizing these little shavers, and when the soften of revenue ceases they will be wited raw; but the trouble is that the worst swindlers in the late that it might be a rase of real destitution, and most own would rather give several times to unworthy cases than to apond time to investigate the truth. Without allowing your charitable instincts to be funded too much, be careful of encouraging a tribe of professional beggues who are only being educated for worse things in the future.

Bary Creckett la Congress

Davy Crockett is Congress.

Davy Crockett was the roughest dismond that ever sparked in the Ross of Representer, are related in the Ross of Representer, and the Ross of Representer in Teanessee, he became noted as a merhanen, a bear function and in 1827 he came to Congress. Wearing a bemespun suit, with a waistcost made from the skin of a panther which he had shet, he attracted some attention, and the most abourd stories were told of his prowess. He told seme good stories, but the greater part of his remarks were coarse and vulgar. It so happened, isoveyer, that he became arrayed against General Jackson on an Indian bill, and when the President sent a frisad to him to tell him that he must support the hill if he desired re-election he repiled, "I helieve the measure is unjust and wicked, and I shell flight it, let the consequences be what they may. I am willing to go with General Jackson in everything I believe right and honest, but beyond this I wont go for any man in creation. I would sooner he honest and politically blanked than hypoerlically immortalized." The Whigs took him up, and he visited Philmdelphia, New York and Boston, receiving marked attention and many presents in each city. When he returned to Tenuessee and went into the santwass ha found that President Jackson was too much for him, and he was beaten by about 300 votes. He went to Texas, where he fought gallantly, and was killed when the Alama was takee and its

In memory of Fred E. Loud, who died March id

1886, aged 25 years, 5 days.

The lamp's pale rays shone o'er the bed
Where the teeble sufferer lay,
And the locet ones neares drew,
I o hear the words that he night say.

"Flease sing," in a whisper faint and low, "Please sing," in a whisper faint and lowe The pale laced sufferer said To the brothers and the sisters That had gathered round his bed.

Clear and sweet then rose the voices Of that locing, stricken band, While his mother sat beside him And closely held his haad. "Sing more," the pale lips uttered, As the music died away And again their enices mingled, "I here's 6 land that's faiter than day," Once more the voices lilended In words the sweetest and the best. There was no answering smile— He had entered into rest.

"Home at least," the corces sang,
And his spirit fled away
From earthly care and trouble to the teatints of perfect day.
He had heard the joyful summons,
"Come and enter no."
His bright young life was ended,
He was said from sin. Was his life's bright promise ended half the plans and hopes he cherofied le as haught torever more? No, the blessed hope in Jesus Points us to a higher view Tells of noblet, better deeds That he there can ever do. So while we mount his absence We grieve not without hope, For there his brilliant faculties Shall find their fullest scope, March 7, 1886.

There has always been a great inscination for me in the forces of electricity, and I have been much latersted in the development of ricetrical apparatus. Of course the ricetime clock struck me as being on excellent thing, and, like mean others, the accuracy claimed made a decided impression on me, it did not occur to me, however, till quite intely, that the electric clock was not a timeplece itself, and that all its boasted accuracy was derived from n steady-going, obl-fashioned regulator. The great difficulty the electric time system labors under, is the imbility to control the elements and other outside indicates. The crossing of two lines, a lerenk in the wire, and other smaller causes are liable to gire uncertainty to all the clocks in that circuit. This will doubtless be remedied in the future, but at present it is a serious drawback.

We desire to express our heastfelt thanks to the many triends and neighbors who displayed so many kind eltentions to our beloved son and brothin during his last suckness. To the pastors who offsited Christian comolation at the last said obseques; to the chast of which the deceased in the chast is the class of which the deceased was a member, and whose beautiful floral tribute rid their negard to think to the young men who, acted as bearers on that sad uccasion, to the young friend whose lovely collection of flowers bespice his affection for him who had gone before; to the other trends who gave so lariship of flowers to deck his last sleep; and to the Band of which our dear one was once a member, and whose tender strains econogranied limit to his last testing place, thereby testifying their esteem; to each and all, we again tender our succeed grantide for every deed that helped to smooth the dying pillow of limi who has left us. Knowing that the E. Howard Watch and Clock company, of this city, had been very successful in developing the electric watchman's clock, and also systems of electric dials, by means of which a large number of clocks are run from one three-poses, I called to inquire of them the secret of their success. They said their electricians were mea who were constantly improving by study, and their work is so faithfully done that mouths and years often clapse before rejairs are necessary. The cheaper systems are sources of annuyance, principally because good work cannot be ilone at the price charged, Regarding a person who had less than six clocks to care for, they advised sticking to the require weight and pendidual clock. The amount paid for two years hire of an electric clock, which one does not own, would buy a Howard clock unsurpussed for reliability and time-keeping qualities lasting for generations.

Me. & MRS. PALMER E. LOUD & FAMILY.

Read at Tuck's Hall, South Weymouth, Wednes day evening March 3, and deducated to Mr. James Stuart. In the message that I bring you, That I speak for those who are present And those who are left behind.

Il all who would give you greeting Where is the mamnoth structure That could contain them all!

Since first you came among us, In the years of long ago, We have learned to price your friendship, And your honest worth to know.

Von have always paid attention To our many whims, or needs: And while you have sold us Hardware. You have given in kindly deeds.

And to let you know how grateful South Weymouth hearts can be We, willing representatives,

Have met here as you see. And we know that our constituents Will sauction all we say, When we ask Heaven's choicest blessings

To gather round your way. Old frien !, when we were children We heard the same bells sound: And on the same town's records, tur names may still be found. So, claiming you as townsman, I feel empowered to say,

That only truth and honor Itave marked your upward way. And now that, just behind me, Vou have turned life's downward slope, May nothing dannt your courage, And nothing dim your hope.

Twere vain to ask that shadows Might never round you fall; For Fortune is so fickle That surrows come to all. But may life's rudest tempest Be like the summer showers

With Peace, a tinted rainbow, And when you leave this earth-life For the fields of living green, May Faith's strong pinions bear you ti'er the gulf that hes between.

Drawing is often thought of as a mere mechanical process or on the other hand as the gift of an artist. This discussion developed its value above all other studies in training the eye to see things as the are, the hand to do what the will do rects, the taste and judgment to up-previate and discriminate among things that appeal to our senses through the eye, these objects to be attained over and above the ability to express our

A Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughn frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impet every prinkent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYEH'S CHERRY PECTURAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief sid works so sure a rure in all affections of this rises. That eminent phreicism, Prof. F. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—
"Medical seiner has produced no other sodyne expectorant so good as ATRU's Curkny PECTORAL. It is invaluable for discusses of the libroat and lungs."

The same calcion is avancessed by the

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known fir. L. J. Aiddison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty, five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation of so creat value as Ayra's Carany. I's cronate, for irrestment of diseases of the throat and lunes. Il not only break up colde and curse severe coughs, but is more effective then says thing give in relieving even the most settlous bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S ... Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have reason into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a bauseland in which this invaluable remely has once been introduced where its use has ever been alaundoned, and there is und a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in unmberless instances, cured obsiliations of from the transfer of Fulmonary Constitution. It is medicine that only requires in he taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is medicine that only requires in he taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing an good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTURAL for treatment of Cropp and Whooping Fough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by surfacel and changle her everythen the contribution. These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.

You may add my testinony as to like oversts of Plyo's Cure for Consumption. I took a severe cold last Federuary, which sattled on my lungs. They became ulcerated and were sepainful that I had no rest for two days and nights. I got a beattn of Plyo's Cure for Consumption, and was relieved by the time I had taken half of it. Since that time I have kept plyo's Core in Inha house, and use it as a preventive, both for long trothles and croup, for which I ran recommond it as the best medicine I ever used; and that is saying a great deal, for I lawe used at least twenty of liters, besides about as many physicians' prescriptions. Place for Consumption has never failed to give relief in my faucity.

Mechanica Hall. Thar residents are to be congratulated upon obtaining what has long been needed in East Weymouth, a public hall of ample size, with stage, curtain and seenery, to accommodate the large gatherings which so often assemble here. The Skafling Rink business has here. The Skalling Rink business has been abandoned and the propertor of the rink, Mr. Walter M. Juzer, has at great expense renovated and remodeled it, and from this date it is to be styled "Mechanics Hall". Da Wednes, day evening next the hall will be dedicated by the Thespaan Tramathe Uhib, of Hingham, who will produce the thrilling three act drama "Nevada, or The Lost Mine". The stage, which is 10 feet wide, has a depth of 25 feet, and is supplied with elegant senery and a drop curtain, the latter representing a magnifleen oil painted viewed a ruined rastle fronting on a river, where nomagnithent oil painted view of a ratified rastle fronting on a river, where numerous goudolas, gayly ornamented, are thating. The painting is a work of art worth an evening standy. Between the foot lights and the front row of seats space has been reserved for a full orchestra. Stationary chairs, to accommodate 600 persons, have been put in, and a banquet hall, with a scatting capacity of 100, has been litted up, off of which there is a caterer's room. Aleready advance agents have communities ready advance agents have communicated with the proprietor for information regarding the hall, and it is very likely that cre long the Weymouth public will have the same opportunity that residents of cities possess for anusement and enjoyment.
